

Amendments To Claims:

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listings, of claims in the application:

In the claims

1. (Currently Amended) A method for automatically providing presentation options during an on-line exam, comprising:

receiving an individual education plan for a student related to a particular grade level, wherein the individual education plan includes indications of presentation options; determining the presentation options based upon the individual education plan, wherein the presentation options relate to the particular grade level and assistive technology for the student and the presentation options are based upon legal disabilities of the student;

incorporating the presentation options into an online profile for the student, wherein the receiving an on-line profile is based at least in part upon an the individual educational plan for a the student, and wherein the on-line profile providing provides an indication of presentation options available to the student;

receiving an on-line exam having a plurality of questions based on a particular subject and the particular grade level; presenting the plurality of questions to the student at least in part via an electronic screen display; providing, during the online exam, the presentation options to the student, based at least in part upon the on-line profile, during the presentation of the plurality of questions for the on-line exam; receiving, from the student, a selection of at least one of the presentation options; adjusting, based on the selection from the student, the plurality of questions to conform with the presentation options by using an assistive technology program to create adjusted questions;

blocking a display of image descriptions which are not specified in the individual education profile; disabling access, by the student, to the presentation options not permitted for use by the student; presenting, during the online exam, the adjusted questions to the student;

receiving answers to the plurality of adjusted questions from the online exam and storing the answers; and compiling data relating to use of the presentation options, and performance of the student in answering the plurality of adjusted questions on the online exam to determine if a timeframe for answering each of the adjusted questions was appropriate and an effectiveness of the presentation option selected by the student; and, modifying the presentation options based at least in part upon the data relating to use of the presentation options.

Claims 2-3 (Cancelled)

4. (Currently Amended) The method of claim 1, further comprising providing a practice area for the student to submit answers to practice questions, not part of the on-line exam, using the presentation options.

Claim 5 (Cancelled)

6. (Currently Amended) An apparatus for automatically providing presentation options during an on-line exam, comprising said apparatus configured to:

a module configured to receive an on-line profile based at least in part upon an individual educational plan for a student, the on-line profile comprising an indication of presentation options available to the student;

a module configured to receive an on-line exam having a plurality of questions; a module configured to present the plurality of questions to the student at least in part via an electronic screen display; a module configured to provide the presentation options to the student, based upon the on-line profile, during the presentation of the plurality of questions for the on-line exam;

a module configured to compile data relating to use of the presentation options, and performance of the student in answering the plurality of questions; and a module configured to receive answers to the plurality of questions and storing the answers.

receive an individual education plan for a student related to a particular grade level, wherein the individual education plan includes indications of presentation options; determine the presentation options based upon the individual education plan, wherein the presentation options relate to the particular grade level and assistive technology for the student and the presentation options are based upon legal disabilities of the student;

incorporate the presentation options into an online profile for the student, wherein the on-line profile is based at least in part upon the individual educational plan for the student, and wherein the on-line profile provides an indication of presentation options available to the student;

receive an on-line exam having a plurality of questions based on a particular subject and the particular grade level; provide, during the online exam, the presentation options to the student, based at least in part upon the on-line profile; receive, from the student, a selection of at least one of the presentation options; adjust, based on the selection from the student, the plurality of questions to conform with the presentation options by using an assistive technology program to create adjusted questions;

block a display of image descriptions which are not specified in the individual education profile; disable access, by the student, to the presentation options not permitted for use by the student;

present, during the online exam, the adjusted questions to the student; receive answers to the adjusted questions from the online exam and storing the answers; and compile data relating to use of the presentation options, and performance of the student in answering the adjusted questions on the online exam to determine if a timeframe for answering each of the adjusted questions was appropriate and an effectiveness of the presentation option selected by the student.

Claims 7-8 (Cancelled).

9. (Currently Amended) The apparatus of claim 6, further ~~comprising a module~~ configured to provide a practice area for the student to submit answers to practice questions, not part of the on-line exam, using the presentation options.

Claims 10-15 (Cancelled)

16. (Currently Amended) The apparatus of claim 6, further ~~comprising a module capable of modifying~~ configured to modify the presentation options based at least in part upon the data relating to use of the presentation options.

Claims 17-18 (Cancelled)

19. (New) The method of claim 1, wherein the presentation options include at least one of: scrollable framesets, window pop-ups, all in one pages, content in separate windows, text descriptions of images, font color modifications, font style modifications, font size modifications, foreground colors, background colors, text reader programs, word highlights, cursor manipulations, arrow page controls, page navigation prompts, steering wheel control, question mark prompt, pencil image prompt, text increase, image increase, volume controls, audio output, voice recognition programs, movie, and closed captioning.